2ND MEETING OF THE CRASA UNIVERSAL ACCESS AND SERVICE COMMITTEE

27TH – 28TH MARCH, 2026

DAR ES SALAAM, TANZANIA

TCRA HEADQUARTERS

1. About Tanzania

The United Republic of Tanzania was formed from the union of two sovereign states, Tanganyika and Zanzibar. Tanzania has a total area of 945,087 square kilometers with a population of about 61,741,120. Tanzania is located in the Eastern part of Africa, bordered by Kenya and Uganda to the North; Rwanda, Burundi, and the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) to the West; Zambia, Malawi, and Mozambique to the South; and the Indian Ocean to the East. Dodoma is the country's capital city while Dar es Salaam is still a major commercial city.

Tanzania is well known for the majestic spice Islands of Zanzibar, the ultimate paradise on the Indian Ocean; Mount Kilimanjaro, the highest mountain in Africa with a snow cap despite being very close to the Equator; the Olduvai Gorge – the Cradle of Mankind; the Ngorongoro Crater – the 7th natural wonder of the World; the Serengeti National Park – world renown for the largest concentration of wildlife and the spectacular wildebeest migration (there is nothing like it on this planet); the Selous Game Reserve – the largest game reserve in Africa; Lake Tanganyika – the deepest lake in Africa; and Lake Victoria, the largest lake in Africa. All these endowments offer opportunities for leisure and investment in hotels, camps, water sports, hunting, and tour operations.

2. About Dar es Salaam

Dar es Salaam is the largest and most populated city, with a population of about 8,161,000. It is a commercial city with a high concentration of trade, manufacturing, and other services. Dar es salaam is a vibrant coastal city that beautifully blends Tanzania's rich cultural heritage with its dynamic urban life. Dar es Salaam offers a unique mix of stunning beaches, bustling markets, and historical sites. From exploring the lively Kariakoo Market to enjoying the calm, turquoise waters along Coco Beach, there's something for everyone here. The city's waterfront is adorned with colorful dhows and offers picturesque views, while its cultural diversity is reflected in its food, music, and welcoming people. Other historical sites can be explored like the National Museum, which showcases the country's deep-rooted heritage, and the Askari Monument, a tribute to Tanzania's role in World War I. With warm tropical weather all year round, Dar es Salaam is the perfect destination to experience Tanzania's warm hospitality, delicious Swahili cuisine, and a relaxed yet lively coastal vibe.

Kindly note, Dar es Salaam is currently undergoing significant infrastructure improvements with the expansion of the Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) system. Due to ongoing construction, travelers may experience occasional disruptions, such as road closures, detours, or increased traffic in certain areas. We advise visitors to plan routes ahead of time, especially when navigating the city center or major roadways. Staying updated with local traffic news the latest information can help ensure a smoother travel experience in Dar es Salaam.
